

Bowtie Productions was founded in 2021 with the goal of creating thought-provoking pieces of musical theatre in small scale, immersive productions. In their 4th season, Bowtie continues to illuminate impactful stories and deliver intimate, rarely produced pieces of fan-favourite theatre that speak to the Toronto arts community.

Now heralded as "one of Toronto's most promising companies" (My Entertainment World), their debut production of the musical Fun Home played a sold out run and formed the foundation for a growing community. Their crowd favourite productions of shows like Falsettos, Hedwig and the Angry Inch and tick, tick...BOOM! played to rave reviews in publications like The Toronto Star and have won Toronto Theatre Critics Awards, Broadway World Awards and garnered nominations from the Dora Mavor Moore Awards and Critics Pick Nominations from My Entertainment World.
