

Missy Peppers Presents!

nobody asked for this: a musical comedy

nobody asked for this is a short and sweet musical comedy set by actor and comedian Christina Nicolaou.

Who are we fooling here? Trying to create anything during a global pandemic with a child in virtual kindergarten is a ridiculous idea. Christina tried! nobody asked for this was written in fits and starts and early morning and late nights. She almost finished it too!

Shot entirely in her bedroom during a provincial lockdown nobody asked for this has original songs that are political, absurd, silly and almost true.
