

My ~~Korean~~ Canadian Friend - Company Bio & History

My ~~Korean~~ Canadian Friend (MKCF) cast and crew are comprised of IBPOC and 2SLGBTQ+ emerging and new-generation multi-disciplinary Artists based in Ontario and Vancouver.

MKCF is written by Ngọc Hân (Rebecca) Trần, an emerging, new-generation Vietnamese-Canadian female Playwright. Her writing is centred on creating characters that are reflective of our diverse and cultured communities, to explore socially relevant subjects and themes, and to encourage a meaningful dialogue between our communities. She is committed to creating narratives that will resonate within the Asian community by representing their culture, showcasing their rich history, and speaking authentically from their experience.

The piece was previously performed as a stage reading in “Fresh Ink” at Soulpepper Theatre and “Telling Tales Out of School” at York University.
