

Preamble Productions was founded by Ken Pak, a Toronto-based actor/writer/filmmaker. He has performed in TV/Film/Theatre. Select credits include: Locke & Key (Netflix), Feel the Beat (Netflix), Tales from the Loop (Amazon), In the Dark (CBS), Living In Your Car (TMN), Covert Affairs (NBC). His short film Letter Home was an official selection at over 25 international film festivals - including the Cambridge Film Festival (UK), Newport Beach Film Festival (US), Route 66 Film Festival (US), Ojai Film Festival (US), San Jose Short Film Festival (US), the Victoria Independent Film Festival (AUS). JOHN WHO marks his return to Toronto theatre from a long hiatus; and his second Toronto Fringe show.

Stefan Dzeparoski, is a Toronto-based international director and creative producer (John Hirsch Award Nominee (Directing), Foreign Tongue (Next Stage Festival – Best Production of Musical), Internal Iniquity (Boulder International Fringe Festival - Best Live-Streamed Production)). His work has been seen on stages in Europe, Canada, and Off-Broadway. He is a Director and Creative Producer at the award-winning BirdLand Theatre. He is also a founder of the creative StartUp Digital Dream Society. Stefan is an alumnus of the Directors Lab at the Lincoln Center (NYC), and a fellowship recipient at the International Theatre School at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. His work has been featured in the New York Times, New York Magazine, Globe and Mail, National Post, Toronto Star, and many online publications.