

Photo by Adelaine Aniag featuring Charlie Ford 1

Photographer, lighting, editor, graphic designer, set design: Adelaine Aniag

Costume and Makeup: Charlie Ford

Featuring: Charlie Ford

Description: Concept photoshoot of Gabriel from “Little Eden,” outgrowing and looking into the house of his deceased grandfather as he reaches for his ashes. A yellow ornamental frame and yellow text depicting the title of the show, “Little Eden,” and “When you lose everything you know, it feels like the walls keep getting closer and closer. If the line between reality and nightmares gets blurred, how can you continue to dream?” is superimposed onto the image.

Photo by Adelaine Aniag featuring Charlie Ford 2

Photographer, editor: Adelaine Aniag

Lighting: Olivia Tsoi

Costume and Makeup: Charlie Ford

Featuring: Charlie Ford

Description: Photo of Gabriel from “Little Eden,” crouched and hiding, holding a newspaper above his head. Behind him is a set of boxes with newspapers strewn about, and a teddy bear to his left.

Photo by Adelaine Aniag featuring Charlie Ford 3

Photographer, editor: Adelaine Aniag

Lighting: Olivia Tsoi

Costume and Makeup: Charlie Ford

Featuring: Charlie Ford

Description: Photo of Gabriel from “Little Eden,” sitting on the edge of his bed, with his hands gesturing out to the audience.

Photo by Adelaine Aniag featuring Charlie Ford 4

Photographer, editor: Adelaine Aniag

Costume and Makeup: Charlie Ford

Featuring: Charlie Ford

Description: Early rehearsal photo of Gabriel from “Little Eden” sitting on his bed, script in hand, performing.