

In Transit Synopsis

In Transit is a non-linear journey through trauma and memories, expressed through dance and movement. Incredibly talented dancers take the audience along while exploring, echoing, and experiencing pain, happiness, and everything in between. Loosely set on the TTC, In Transit juxtaposes emotional transitions with our actual movements, in transit, and takes the audience on an emotional journey.