

TITA POWER

Mabuhay and welcome to Titaville!

November 2 - 27 at the Toronto Fringe Primetime Festival

Multi-award winning all-Filipina group, the Tita Collective, is back with a new virtual show: TITA POWER as part of the 2021 Toronto Fringe Primetime Festival, November 2 - 27. Through their own stories, you will learn more about each Tita and take a tour of Titaville, the little village populated by your funniest and favourite Titas. Come visit Tita Posh, Tita Scary, Tita Ginger, Tita Baby and Tita Bago in their homes, eat too much lumpia and snort-laugh halo halo as you witness a wild tita in her own habitat.

Tita Collective is a multi-award winning all Filipina collective composed of playwrights, comedians, musicians, dancers, theatre makers and actors. They explore different mediums to tell the stories about the Filipin* diaspora. Individually, Tita Collective are: Ann Paula Bautista (Bad Hat Theatre's Peter Pan), Belinda Corpuz (Factory Theatre's Lady Sunrise), Ellie Posadas (Scarborough), Alia Rasul (Just For Laughs Solo Showcase), and Maricris Rivera (A New World Being Born).

In addition to the Toronto Fringe Primetime Festival, Tita Collective will also appear at the undercurrents festival in Ottawa, February 2022.

This year Tita Collective was nominated for a 2021 Golden Balangay Award for Excellence in Music and Entertainment. Past awards include: the 2019 Steamwhistle Producers' Pick at the Toronto Sketch Comedy Festival, Best Newcomer at the Montreal Sketch Comedy Festival, the Second City Outstanding New Comedy Award and Tarragon Theatre's Mainspace Patrons' Pick at the 2019 Toronto Fringe Festival. They were featured as part of the "19 Asian Millennial Women You Should Know" listing by Cold Tea Collective, and in Spotify Canada's 2020 "Need Women" campaign for Women's History Month, on one of Canada's largest billboards in Toronto's Yonge & Dundas Square.
