

PRESENTED BY TITA COLLECTIVE

IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE TORONTO FRINGE PRIMETIME FESTIVAL

NOVEMBER 2-27, 2021 | ONLINE

SYNOPSIS

Mabuhay and welcome to TitaVille! The little village populated by your funniest and favouritest Titas. Come visit Tita Posh, Tita Scary, Tita Ginger, Tita Baby and Tita Bago in their homes, eat too much lumpia and snort-laugh halo halo as you witness a wild tita in her own habitat. Connect to your own TITA POWER as you learn about your beloved Titas through their own stories.

SHOW THEMES

TITA POWER follows the stories of Tita Posh, Tita Scary, Tita Ginger, Tita Baby and Tita Bago, as they explore themes of feminist empowerment, intergenerational gaps, family (dis)connection, community and immigration.

SHOW FORMAT

TITA POWER is a 45 minute virtual show with comedy sketches and storytelling. Using the online platform, Gather.town, audiences will take a tour around Titaville, and visit each Tita's home. The show will consist of both live and pre-recorded performances.

SHOW CREDITS

TITA POWER is created and performed by the Tita Collective: Ann Paula Bautista, Belinda Corpuz, Ellie Posadas, Alia Rasul, and Maricris Rivera.

Tita Collective is a multi-award winning all Filipina collective composed of playwrights, comedians, musicians, dancers, theatre makers and actors. They explore different mediums to tell the stories about the Filipin* diaspora.

Produced in association with the Toronto Fringe Primetime Festival.

Illustration by Brian Ejar.