

Cannibal by Thom Nyhuus
Directed by Courtney Ch'ng Lancaster

Bridget has written a hit play about the abduction of her son. Critics are raving, but those closest to her are reeling. She engages in ruthless, emotional warfare with each of them as she rebels against the grieving process. What happens when we are forced to face our most primal fears?