

Synopsis: *LUCKY

Nina, a Filipino student, can't meet her parents' expectations. An encounter with Sylvain, a former skinhead, sparks a thrilling plan that could change both their lives... but he soon realizes she may not be who she claims to be. He forces her to confront her self-hate and he too must face the question: can we ever break free and become who we truly want to be?