"It's fascinating to see how well these different media – visual art, theater, spoken word – intertwine and provide a fully accessible experience."

—Anja Caspary, Visual Encounter

Theatre Review: Raising Stanley / Life With Tulia at the GCTC – Apt613

"This play is a joy to watch. It is important to watch. It is a story of trust and partnership between humans and animals. It is a nuanced story by a blind woman about her experiences clear from clichés and filled with funny anecdotes and depictions of loss and challenges... Kim Kilpatrick confirms that there is great power in the story of one."

—Alejandra Vargas García, apt613.ca
