FOR MORRO AND JASP: SAVE THE DATE

Outstanding New Play, Outstanding Performances & Outstanding Direction – NOW Magazine's Best of the Fest 2018

"There's nothing like a Morro & Jasp show: not in other time slots at Tarragon Theatre, not in the whole of the 2018 Toronto Fringe Festival, not ever. Toronto's favourite clown sisters have a new two-hander in the Fringe this year and it's everything you ever wanted from them."
- Mooney on Theatre

"I just can't quit the beautiful catharsis of a Morro & Jasp ending and this one was a real emotional doozy." - My Entertainment World

"If there is such a thing as Fringe royalty, Morro and Jasp are it... Annis and Lee have always elevated their productions above mere entertainment (as entertaining as they are) by placing their loving and well-defined relationship at the centre of their stories, and this one might just be the most touching yet." - ArtsVox

"Aren't these two just the most adorable, smart, focused and agile performers I may have every witnessed in this city. Cute little clown angels that are actually secretly super fierce and wickedly sharp... They are masters at their craft and Save the Date was a spectacular display of what they do best." - Emerging Art Productions

★★★★★ - Stage Door

"Perfectly hilarious, perfectly poignant, perfectly gross, and perfectly adorable Morro and Jasp Do Puberty is the MUST SEE Show of the 2015 Fringe Festival. These clown sisters will endear themselves deep into your hearts and stay there forever."

★★★★★ - TWISI Blog

"They're not afraid to get dirty in all senses of the word, and tap into the darker, angrier, more sensual sides of clown performance. The result is delightful and empowering, with an amazing nostalgia-inducing soundtrack."

★★★★1/2 - Torontoist

"A charming, hilarious and superb piece of theatre...positively captivating"

★★★★★ - VUE Weekly

"A must see for everyone."

★★★★★ - Eye Weekly

"With sharply defined characters that are hilariously and heartbreakingly awkward, great physical performances, and some hysterical audience participation, Morro and Jasp brings a lot of laughs to the trying years."

★★★★ - CBC Manitoba

FOR MORRO AND JASP: 9-5

"A hilarious send-up of corporate culture that pays lots of theatrical dividends...9-5 is a world premiere, but I have a feeling it'll be around for a long time. If there were stock, I'd invest."

NNNN - NOW Magazine

"The Amy Poehler and Tina Fey of Canadian clowning...You'll leave the theatre glowing"

★★★ (Out of 4) - The Globe and Mail

"One of Toronto theatre's best feminist teams...Superbly heartbreaking"

★★★ (Out of 4) - Toronto Star

"The genius of Morro and Jasp is how they appeal to that spirit of childhood that we all still carry with us but too often forget we have. The duo so clearly reminds us of the essence of play that their show produces a feeling of joy as well as laughter. I waited far too long to get to know their wonderful way with comedy. Don't you make the same mistake."

★★★★ - Stage Door

"Heartwarming and moving with just enough satire to undercut the sugar and deliver the medicine...delightful comic relief."

★★★★ My Gay Toronto

FOR OF MICE AND MORRO AND JASP

"Funny and sweet, but it also cleverly skewered an underfunded theatre scene whose obsession with classics can make it tolerate old prejudices."

One of the Top Ten Productions of 2014 - The Globe and Mail

Outstanding New Play, Outstanding Production and Outstanding Ensemble – NOW Magazine

"The actors go beyond laughs with this material, which feels uncomfortable and darker than the usual clown show. They handle it expertly: just watch their faces as things go from worse to worst and try to stop a tear of your own from welling up as they face what seems like a hopeless situation."

NNNNN - NOW Magazine

"They make Of Mice and Men twice as funny as it originally was... positively giggle-inducing... But what really makes Morro and Jasp shows click is the utter commitment Annis and Lee (with director Byron Laviolette) bring to their lovably innocent characters. The show's aimed at adults, but it will bring out your gleeful inner kid."

★★★★ - "Outstanding Comedy Duo" - CBC

"Morro and Jasp are the rock stars of their field... their strongest performances yet... a brilliant take on the John Steinbeck novel... hilarious and poignant."

★★★★★ – Torontoist

"As enchanting as they are funny. [...] Best thing I've seen at the Fringe."

★★★★★ - Edmonton Journal

"Hilarious and endearing."

★★★★★ - Theatromania
