

'Heart of a Dog' tells the story of Sharikov, a stray dog that is turned into a human by a successful surgeon. He tries to navigate life under the Soviet state as a human. This timeless story – uniquely – portrays the exploitation of people in any society.